

The Formentera Council wishes to thank Spanish national television for its support as the programme "Comando actualidad" turns its cameras to the island for a recent, start-of-summer episode. The special installment found the crew of the TV show checking out some of Formentera's most cherished sights like Bartolo beach bar, ses Illetes, Fonda Pepe, posidonia seagrass meadows and a sunset from Migjorn.

Tourism secretary Alejandra Ferrer praised the laid-back and welcoming vision of Formentera the show's producers put forward, adding "the fact our island is such a well-loved destination is thanks to a lot of people's hard work, and to our unmatched natural surroundings".

One-point-four million viewers, or 9.7% of Spanish audiences, tuned in last Monday at 10.43pm as RTVE aired “Comando al sol, Los Tops del verano” on channel one.
