

This Thursday, the director of Eivissa's Centre for Study and Prevention of Addictive Behaviour (Cepca), Belén Alvite, will lead a talk titled Bencriats: Claus per educar els nostres fills i filles (Raised right: Keys to educating our children)—the first in a series of lectures for families and educational personnel that is scheduled to take place at the Centre de Dia.

Presented by the Department of Social Welfare with help from the education office, teachers' resource centre (CEP) and Federation of Parents' Associations (FAPA), "Xerrades per a famílies i docents" is a nine-part lecture series which culminates on 7 May. Talks take place in the Centre de Dia's multipurpose room, or sala polivalent, and daycare is provided.

8 October 2019
Department of Communication
Consell de Formentera