

The Formentera Department of Social Welfare reports that at 5.00pm tomorrow, Thursday 16 April, the lecture series ‘Xerrades per a famílies i docents’ (Talks for families and teachers) returns with an afternoon chat from Marina Ribas broadcast live on the “Formentera es queda a casa” (Formentera stays home) Facebook page. Originally scheduled for 12 March, the talk had to be pushed back due to the Covid-19 health crisis.

Marina Ribas, a teacher and communicator whose areas of specialisation include wellness, social issues and nutrition, will ask the question ‘What’s “eating right”?’ The remaining lectures in the cycle will also happen on the “Formentera es queda a casa” Facebook page. Dates have yet to be announced.
