

The Formentera Council has announced three days of mourning will be observed in solidarity with the victims and all those affected by Tuesday's storms in Sant Llorenç des Cardassar and several other towns in the east of Mallorca.

Kicking off the events organised by the Council this weekend will be the dedication of a memorial for victims and the observance of a moment of silence.