

Today at 12.30pm, local officials, municipal staff and regular islanders gathered at the steps of the island's government to observe a minute of silence in condemnation of male-on-female murders in Tenerife and Seville. Attached is a photograph of the moment.

14 June 2021
Communications Department
Consell de Formentera