

Today Ana Juan, President of the Consell de Formentera, received Emanuele Manzitti, the Italian consul in Barcelona, as part of Manzitti's tour of the Balearic Islands. Talk at the meeting, which was also attended by the Alejandra Ferrer, Vice President and Councillor of Tourism, and representatives of the Italian consulate, focused on Formentera's substantial number of Italian tourists (Italy is currently the island's second biggest source market) and residents. There are 1,699 people of Italian origin registered on Formentera today.
