

The School of Music and Dance of Formentera (Escola de Música i Dansa) will celebrate the feast day of Saint Cecilia next Sunday 21 November with a special concert. The show will take place at 12 noon in the courtyard of Sant Ferran's Espai Cultural (the former school, Carrer Tarragona, 26). The event is free and open to the public as long as attendees stay a safe distance apart and wear masks for the duration.

Held on a day that is dedicated to musicians, performances will feature students in some of the school's most popular courses, like Traditional Music, the Children's Choir (director: Rosa Mago), the island's Polyphonic Choir (director: Juan Francisco Ballesteros) and the Municipal Band (director: Santiago Ramirez).

"The School of Music and Dance of Formentera celebrates Saint Cecilia's Day by bringing music to the community. Last year we had to do things digitally, so this year we are very excited that the public will be able to enjoy in-the-flesh performances again", signalled Councillor of Culture Susana Labrador, who encouraged students' families and all music lovers "to come enjoy this special celebration."
