

The Formentera Council culture office is putting together a New Year's Eve concert with Bruixa Express

. From one in the morning in the Sant Ferran festival tent, the Catalan covers band will celebrate incoming 2019 with a live performance of pop/rock hits.

Eight musicians will take to the stage to assure the new year starts off right, explained culture councillor Susana Labrador, encouraging the whole island to come enjoy a group with over a decade of performing under their belts.

Their story

The Lleida-based musicians of covers band Bruixa Express have built themselves a breadth of showbiz experience since getting going in 2006. The setlist —Catalan, Spanish and international pop/rock classics alongside today's radio hit— will have something for a range of music fans. In combining high-brow stage design aesthetics with AV-enhanced tunes, the band all but promises islanders an unforgettable night.

Songs

Every season Bruixa Express tweak the act in an effort to nail the correct dose of crowd favourites and new, fresh material. The setlist include some of the most memorable hits of artists like Sopa de Cabra, Bon Jovi, The Beatles, Sau and Plate
ro y Tú