

Individuals with functional diversity who obtain care at the Formentera Day Centre enjoyed a splendid day yesterday in Can Marroig, where an educational guide offered them a tour of Ses Salines Nature Reserve of Eivissa and Formentera. Participants also learned about the scope and richness of biodiversity, from resting areas for migratory birds to land and marine habitats. The day concluded with a lunch on site.

11 February 2022

Communications Office

Consell de Formentera