

The immigration division of the Formentera Office of Social Welfare (Conselleria de Benestar Social, CBSF) is pleased to announce that registration for the 18th Social and Cultural Integration for Foreigners will open 19 October. The course will take shape between 3 and 29 November at Formentera's adult learning centre (Escola d'Adults).

Signups for the free course run 19 to 28 October at the CBSF, located at the Centre de Dia de Formentera, venda des Brols 7179. For more information call 971 321 271 or email immigracio@conselldeformentera.cat.

Rafael Ramírez, councillor of social welfare, said the course was a sign of local government's "continued commitment to helping newcomers integrate and stay on the right side of administrative imperatives".

Besides helping students prepare for the CCSE citizenship test, participation in the course enables individuals to obtain accreditation from the Balearic government attesting to their will to integrate. Topics covered will include Spain's constitutional values, human rights and civil liberties, the Balearic Statute of Autonomy, the European Union and gender equality, among others. Classes will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4.30pm to 7.00pm.
