

The Colombian mobile consulate is visiting Formentera this week to offer consular services like applications for citizenship, passports, administrative help and civil registrations, among others. The Consell has offered up the facilities of the Formentera Office of Social Welfare for the occasion. Today, Ana Juan, President of the Consell, and Rafael Ramírez, Councillor of Social Welfare, visited the mobile consulate and greeted Luis Mora, who is the deputy consul of Colombia in the Balearic Islands. Currently, there are 358 Colombian nationals registered on Formentera: 174 women and 174 men.
