

The Consell de Formentera human resources department is accepting applications for two positions in the municipal job pool - one, for social and health care assistants at the old people's residence, the other, for administrative assistants. Recruits will temporarily cover vacancies within the local administration.

Candidates will be chosen based on merit, and terms of the selection process were published yesterday in the regional gazette [BOIB]. Applications will be accepted today (10 June) until 20 June.

Human resources asks that candidates use the standard application form, available from today at the General Registry [Registre General] of the Consell de Formentera and at www.consellinsulardeformentera.cat
