

Two officers of Formentera's law enforcement agency have passed the training course to access the category of local police officer. A graduation ceremony was held yesterday at the Balearic School of Public Administration (Escola Balear d'Administració Pública, EBAP) in Palma for 23 students from the Balearic Islands –three women and twenty men– who completed the 175-hour EBAP training course. The course involved 14 teachers and an alternating list of physical and online modules and, for the first time, was decentralised. The two agents are now completing their training period, which will end at the end of this year.
