

On 17 October, Doctors Pau Sureda and Edgar Camarós, accompanied by Raquel Guasch, Formentera's councillor of heritage, will present findings from phase nine of Arqueobarbaria, an archaeological project that is being carried out at the Cap de Barbaria II dig site. (This phase found crews performing a combination of excavation and restoration work.) With restoration of the settlement –the principal milestone– now complete, the next step is creation of a related museum. At present field work is complete and the researchers will proceed to laboratory and analytical work. The presentation will be held at 7.00pm in the Consell de Formentera hall of ceremonies (Sala d'Actes).
