

This Friday, 3 September, artist Anna Ametller will unveil “Reconnectant”: a showcase of the Formentera-based and Catalonia-born creator’s takes on women, plants, landscapes, the seafloor, birds and other animals that conjure feelings of connection and communion with nature. The pieces are fashioned with varying materials: iron, wood, stones and other found objects.
The show will be on view till 12 September, from 11.00 to 2.00pm and 7.00pm to 9.00pm at Centre Antoni Tur “Gabrielet”.
