

The Formentera Offices of Tourism and Culture are pleased to report that the Formentera Jazz Festival was held from 23 to 26 September. Forced by the pandemic to opt for an exclusively virtual programme in 2020, organisers of the seventh “FJF” combined in-person and virtual events.

Consell de Formentera President and Councillor of Tourism Alejandra Ferrer praised organisers for bringing back the festival, which brings top-notch music to the island and offers tourists and islanders alike a line-up of culturally-rich acts.

According to FJF director Maxwell Moya, 2021 found the festival reaffirming its mission of connecting audiences with nature and the magic of the island through live music.

Music-wise, FJF continues to showcase the convergence of jazz with varying musical genres, encouraging talent, as in years past, from both the national, regional and local scenes. FJF also meant talks and workshops, and offered spaces for reflection on future challenges faced by the island and music industry in terms of sustainability.

FJF was launched in 2015 by Formentera native Maxwell Moya, and has been backed by the Consell de Formentera since its first year.

27 September 2021
Communications Office
Consell de Formentera