Tomorrow at 6.00pm, Josep López Vañó, a Valencian photographer living on Formentera, will pull back the curtain on his exhibition 'Recordar' ("Remember") at Centre Antoni Tur 'Gabrielet'. The show will feature images captured on Formentera, recycled chairs typical of the islands and a video experience in which visitors are encouraged to reflect on and enjoy an exhibition where, in the words of the artist, "imagination, perspective, reality and fiction converge".

'Recordar' will remain open until 30 October from Monday to Saturday, 11.00am to 1.00pm and 5.30pm to 8.00pm.
